Synopsis of Events

On August 22, 2025, a licensed practical nurse (LPN) conducted Mr. AYALA Uribe's medical intake screening. The LPN noted Mr. AYALA Uribe denied having any chronic health conditions or medication use. His exam and vital signs were normal, except for slightly elevated blood pressure. The LPN cleared him for placement in general population.

On September 18, 2025, medical staff responded to Mr. AYALA Uribe's medical emergency in his dorm and transported him to the medical clinic in a wheelchair. A registered nurse (RN) documented sharp pain near his anus, rated 10, on a 10-point pain scale, and abnormal vital signs. An LPN noted that a physician ordered pain medications, anti-inflammatory ointment, a fiber supplement, and wellness checks twice daily for ten days.

On September 21, 2025, at approximately 12:57 a.m., an RN evaluated Mr. AYALA Uribe for complaint of severe left buttock and epigastric pain. The RN documented that Mr. AYALA Uribe vomited once, was sweating, shaking, and nauseated. The RN also noted an elevated blood glucose reading, abnormal vital signs, and irregular electrocardiogram results. Per a physician's orders, Mr. AYALA Uribe was transferred to Victor Valley Global Medical Center (VVGMC).

- At 3:55 p.m., an RN documented VVGMC medical staff reported that Mr. AYALA Uribe had been admitted to a surgical floor. He appeared calm and cooperative and was diagnosed with hypotension and an abscess on his left buttock. An ultrasound was performed, with results pending, and surgery to drain the abscess was being considered. Medical staff also noted that Mr. AYALA Uribe received intravenous fluids, reported pain rated 10/10, had an elevated heart rate, and otherwise normal vital signs.

On September 22, 2025, at approximately 1:49 a.m., Mr. AYALA Uribe experienced hypotension and tachycardia and went into respiratory arrest. VVGMC staff performed cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), achieved return of spontaneous circulation, intubated him, and moved him into the Intensive Care Unit (ICU) to start norepinephrine.

- At approximately 2:00 a.m., Mr. AYALA Uribe suffered cardiac arrest. Hospital staff performed CPR; however, they were unable to revive him.
- At 2:32 a.m., a physician pronounced Mr. AYALA Uribe deceased.
